We issue a memorandum of understanding between us and the recipient organization for each wire, signed by a representative of each organization. These MOUs determine the intended purpose of each gift, and the recipient organization provides both financial records of spending and narrative reports of accomplishments to use quarterly. Receipts for specific transactions are occasionally requested and provided. Finally, the executive director we have hired is also the executive director of our primary partner organization in Uganda, where she lives majority time. This arrangement provides direct and close monitoring by our board of the use of grants.
